

Pitching Coach 2012 Season Medicine Hat Mavericks

The Medicine Hat Mavericks are part of the WMBL, Canada's preeminent summer college baseball league. The WMBL consists of 11 teams from the Western Canadian prairies. The Mavericks season runs from the end of May (approx May 26th) to August 16th. Medicine Hat (60,000 population) boasts all big city amenities, with a small town feel. Our fan base averages between 700 and 1300 fans per night, with the Mavericks being 'the hot ticket' for summer entertainment.

Job Summary: The Mavericks are looking for a pitching coach for the 2012 season. Our coaching staff works hard to provide our players with the opportunity to improve as baseball players and as individuals, while having an exciting summer experience. We provide early work and gym memberships for game preparation, and a competitive attitude in the quest of the WMBL Championship. We are looking for a responsible & professional person with knowledge from acquired experience but also progressive 'out of the box' thinking that only life-long learners develop. Preference will be given to those with a degree in a sport related field such as Human Kinetic/ Kinesiology/ Sports Management/ Business/ Leadership.

Responsibilities:

- Aid in recruitment of players for 2012 season (team approx ½ done in recruiting as of Dec 12th).
- Manage pitching staff daily.
- Head grounds crew of 5-6 players in pre-game prep & post game clean-up of Mavs games.
- Write post game articles (after game or next day).
- Throw batting practice every other day.

Reports to: General Manager & Head Coach

Work Schedule: May 26th to August 16

Salary: $4,000-5,500 for season & living accommodation.
$250 each way for travel expenses.
$20/day meal money on road trips.

Minimum Requirements:

- College or professional experience as a pitcher.
- Presently coaching at a college or university.
- Proficiency in basic computer applications (Word® & Excel®)
